QUESTIONS FROM INDUSTRY

1. Your solicitation states the size standard is set at 100 employees. However, the NAICS code in use (423430) allows for a standard of 500 employees; the note under NAICS section 42 states, "Not applicable to Government procurement of supplies. The nonmanufacturer size standard of 500 employees shall be used for purposes of Government procurement of supplies." Is it possible to have the size standard extended so that my company might be able to participate?

Answer: The size standard for this solicitation has been changed to "500 people."

2. Is this solicitation for the replacement of an existing server at DSCA or a new requirement?

Answer: This solicitation is for replacement of an existing development server which is no longer supportable.

3. If this a replacement of an existing server, who was the original contractor, contract number and award amount?

Answer: This question is not relevant to this solicitation.

4. Is there a TPOC or program official attached, if so, what is there contact information?

Answer: No. All technical questions must be in writing and addressed to the Contract Specialist as stated in the solicitation.

5. Is there a configuration breakdown with more specific HP part numbers than the description listed on-line?

Answer: All of the HP part numbers are listed below. The Government requires the HP part or equal as described below.
